Revati Mann, Postgraduate Slade School of Art Show, June 2008

Please find enclosed a copy of the Acme newsletter announcing that this year's Adrian Carruthers Studio Award has been given to postgraduate student Revati Mann.

Revati completed her BA Fine Art degree at the University of Brighton and since 2006 has been at Slade on the MA Programme in Fine Art Media led by Professor John Hilliard.

Following a period of travelling and visiting family in India, Revati has now started her occupation of the studio at Childers Street.

Terumitsu Hishinuma, last year's award holder, moved out of the studio in September and has found another studio to move to and is continuing his work.

Thanks to your continuing and generous donations we currently have funds to continue the programme for another two years. It's a great and fitting memorial to Adrian Carruthers and all donations are very much appreciated.

Acme Studios provides studios, work/live space, residencies and awards for artists in economic need and is the UK's leading development agency for artists' space.
